

MAUVA BANK, 101-103 CALLE O'CONNOR

The offices of this Bank having been removed to the above spacious building, in order to suit the increasing flow of business, the public is informed that the following transactions are carried on in currency and specie in this Bank.

First—Bills and obligations with good signatures are discounted on conventional terms.

Second—Money is advanced on mercantile and other securities approved of by the Manager.

Third—Accounts current are opened with merchants or other parties who may prefer depositing endorsed and transferable securities, against which they may draw up to an amount previously conveyed under conditions established for such class of operations.

Fourth—Money is received in account current, bearing interest from day of deposit, which is accumulated in favor of the parties every three months, the deposits being allowed to retire at any time, by means of checks, part or the full amount at their wish, save when the quantity exceeds three hundred dollars or one hundred thousand dollars currency, in which case forty-eight hours' previous notice is required to be given at the Treasury of the Bank.

Fifth—Bills or letters of credit are drawn and taken on Montevideo, Rosario, Sta. Fe, Salto, Oriental, Paysandú, Rio Negro, and other places in the Brazil, and elsewhere, as also on other places, of which notice will be given hereafter.

Finally, the Bank undertakes and executes all legitimate transactions within the orbit of banking operations.

The establishment is always open from 10 a.m. till 3 p.m.

LIFE IN THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

BY HIS EX. D. P. SARMIENTO.

We have just received 300 copies of this interesting work, recently published in New York; the author is the President-elect, the translator Mrs. Horacio Mann, and the publishers have issued it from the press in first-rate style, nicely bound in cloth, with a capital portrait of Sor. Sarmiento. It forms a neat volume of 400 pages.

The table of contents gives an idea of the merit of the work:

- I. Physical aspect of la Plata.
- II. The civilization of city life.
- III. The gauchos of the Pampa.
- IV. Revolution of 1810.
- V. Life of Quiroga.
- VI. Civil wars of Rioja.
- VII. Cordoba and Buenos Ayres.
- VIII. The "red ribbon".
- IX. Dorrego and the Unitarios.
- X. Episodes of war.
- XI. The Reign of Terror.
- XII. Tucuman and Ciudadela.
- XIII. Rosas and Quiroga.
- XIV. Aldao, Governor of Mendoza.
- XV. Auto biography of Sarmiento.

The work is on sale at Mackern's, Loedel's, and the Standard office—price 50¢ mpc.

THE NEW TARIFF.

To the Editors of the Standard.

Gentlemen,

I cannot refrain from trespassing on your time to tell you how much I thank you for your well-written article published in the Standard of the 26th ult.

There is no doubt that the real progress of a country depends on the skill of her legislators in forming laws so as to develop her natural resources by giving increased facilities to the laboring portion of her population.

So far as exports are concerned, whatever is sent from the Argentine Confederation to Europe ought to be allowed to go at a very low rate of duty, even if it be raw material, but if manufactured, entirely free. On the other hand, imports such as coal, machinery, iron, lumber, and like articles, ought to be admitted free, as these are employed in the development of the natural products of the country, in preparing these products for the European market, where they have to compete with articles produced by skilled workmen, at very low rates of wages, and on which no duties whatever are charged.

It is consequently a move in the right direction to lower the rate of duty on wool and sheepskins, and if washed to be charged at the same rate as in the grease. The washing of wool and sheepskins is now an admitted industry of the country; these washing establishments are certainly not on a large scale, but they have been struggling by high duties; if the proposed relief come there will consequently follow a large increase of the class of industrial labour, as many estancieros and exporters of these products will take advantage of the amended law, and send wool and sheepskins to the European market "scoured," and not plastered over as they too frequently are, with mud and grease, and in many instances quite unfit for sale.

Trusting to see the commencement of a new era of enlightenment and progress in the counsels of my country, I am, with great regard, a willing contributor.

ARGENTINO.

THE FEENEY MURDER.

In your publication of the 27th inst. I noticed what purports to be a statement of facts relating to the arrest of the supposed murderer of Mr. James Feeny of Giles, in which you say that to publish full particulars, would aid justice; the full particulars are as follows:

On the 12th July, I was arrested and charged before the "Gefe" in Rosario with being one of the murderers of James Feeny; but on trial I proved that I was working on the Central Railroad from the 6th of June to the day of my arrest, continually, and was discharged from custody on the 16th July; I resumed my work on the 17th, but was rearrested on the 24th July while at my work on the Railroad, and detained in Rosario until the 20th August, when I was brought to your city and hence, to my present abode, viz: the common prison of the Villa "Mercedes," where, although acknowledged to be innocent, I am treated as a murderer; have not a stitch of clothing to cover myself at night; no shoes; and have just enough food to support life; in addition, I am seriously ill with rheumatic pains.

It is stated that some of the victim's clothing was found on my person; apropos, when Henry Audley, the reputed murderer came to Rosario, he saw me at work on the railroad, and went to stop in the same boarding-house with me, where he was put to sleep in the same bed, and he lent me a scarf, he also put his recado under the bed. In about twelve days he left, giving his recado and clothing in charge to the owner of the house, Mr. John Kearney; this is the recado that was found under my bed, and the clothing that was identified on my person; this has been proved, and the proof is still in the hands of the United States Consul in Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen, when reading your valuable publication, I have ever noticed you side by side with justice and right, and I hope you will publish this for one, poor and friendless, who acknowledged innocent, writes from a felon's cell. Begging pardon for so far intruding,

I am yours, gentlemen.

ROBERT MC SHANE.

Villa Mercedes, September 1868.

MR. JOHN MARSHALL.

We make the following extract from the "Acerrington Reporter," received by last packet:

"In Buenos Ayres there are many notable men; one instance is to be found in the success of a person who left Acerrington 18 years ago as a farmer boy, but who is now the largest shipbuilder in Buenos Ayres, and who is termed by the English press of the country, 'the Laird of South America,' that is Mr. John Marshall, whose family and relatives are still residing at Huncot. His yard is five miles from the city, at a place called Barracas. He was the first to build an iron boat, 17 years ago, on the river. It was predicted a failure. When the day of launching came he invited a few natives to convince them that iron would swim. The small vessel took the water 'like a duck,' and backwards and forwards it went on the Riachuelo with the greatest ease. After that he was entrusted with the repairs of the first steamer owned by the Argentine Republic; that being completed to their satisfaction, other work was entrusted to him, and now he is the principal shipbuilder in South America. Well may Acerrington be proud of her 'farmer boy.'"

THE MONTEVIDEAN CLERKS.

Montevideo, Sept. 2, 1868.

To the Editors of the Standard,

Gentlemen:

I would crave the attention of the managers of English Importing Houses in Montevideo, to a glaring injustice done to their Clerks. As these gentlemen are well aware that everything there must be paid in gold, or its equivalent in currency (which in the latter case makes a difference of at least 25 per cent.) they can easily comprehend that their Clerks are quite unable to stand a diminution of one-fourth part of their salary, especially in some cases where this is barely sufficient to cover their necessary expenses. As these Houses receive gold for their goods, or a corresponding premium in paper, I submit it is very hard on the Clerks, under existing circumstances, that their Salaries should not be placed on a like footing.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

DELTA.

THE POST OFFICE.

Buenos Ayres, August 31st 1868.

To the Editors of the Standard:

Gentlemen:

I beg through the columns of your valuable newspaper, to indicate to Mr. Posadas, a reform, which is absolutely necessary for the public convenience; that is—The establishment of an office, in which the Montevidean letters might be sorted and delivered, (on the days that the packet arrives,) in a more convenient manner, than that of throwing them through the window.

This reform could be easily carried out, by obliging the merchants to pay a few dollars more for their "casillas," which would be gladly done by them, thereby, ensuring the ready delivery of their Montevidean correspondence, which is, generally, as important as the European.

I hope, therefore, that Mr. Posadas will effect this important reform, by the doing of which, he will have the thanks of the public, and those of

A. CLERK.

THE DEBATING SOCIETY.

Gentlemen:

In your recent impressions, I note several letters written upon the supposed demise of the Debating and Literary Society; The first who styles himself "Member" I will briefly allude to first.

Evidently "Member" has great confidence in his own peculiar qualifications, when he declares there are not three young men in Buenos Ayres, who can express themselves fluently and intelligently! and, still writes to a paper; surely "Member" must be very ambitious to see his own name in print at any rate he has not laid himself open to the accusation of hiding his light under a bushel.

Our other friend "Caliban" commences his witty contributions by quoting Shakespeare as though to add additional force to what follows, which in the opinion of your humble servant is a most absurd tirade against all Debating Societies. Perhaps we can persuade our friend of the Casino, to offer a reward for the drink, which "Caliban" seems to deserve to discover, and thereby benefit his own pocket; for "Caliban" is apparently a great friend of all drinking saloons, and on the discovery will no doubt bestow his patronage on our deserving friend Joshua.

The last contributor "Liver" who makes an assertion to the effect that the society is defunct, where he gained this information I am at a loss to know for as yet, I am sure, the majority of the members are aware of its existence. I for one was entirely ignorant until "Liver" enlightened me. Would "Liver" kindly enlighten me as to the difference between a crab and a hermit crab? because according to the testimony of "Cuvier" a crab doesn't walk backward. Apologizing for the space this occupies in your valuable paper.

ON CHANGE.

September 4, 1868.

Ounces 400

Sovereigns 12 1/2

Patacons 25

National Bonds 53

National Bonds ruled extremely weak to-day, the sales for cash being almost nominal: only one thousand sold. The rates on time also show a downward tendency. For September 30, 100,000, at 53 1/2. For September 15th, 15,000, at 53 1/2. For Saturday 95,000, at 53 1/2.

The great calm in the Bond market is attributed to the unwillingness of outsiders to invest at these high rates.

The brokers find it their interest to maintain prices, although it paralyzes

the business. Until Bonds fall to 48, no great speculation can be looked for.

As a rule, outsiders who bought at a low figure have realised, and the brokers, instead of allowing the market to find its own level, borrowed money on Bonds and bolstered up prices. They now find the Bonds on their hands

So long as money rules easy, it is possible that the rates will be maintained, but when the busy season sets in, in another month, prices must succumb.

The market here is so limited, that the holders find it impossible to sell short for any large amount, before throwing the Bonds on the market, and hence the greater certainty of loss for those who go much beyond their depth in the business.

It is estimated that there are no less than three million Bonds at present in the hands of brokers. This represents close on 1 1/2 million of patacons, a very large amount for so limited a market.

In exchange very little done, the rate looking down: drawers, 48 1/2, takers, 49. We heard on 'Change' that the River Plate Bank is drawing

at 48.

The retirement of Mr. Walker, second manager of the River Plate Bank, was announced on 'Change' to-day.

Mr. Walker, we understand, returns to England, having, during his term of office here gained the esteem and respect of all.

Mr. Drew, the special agent of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, informs us that the Company now takes specie at the same rate as the other steamers, viz:—

For London, gold or silver, 1/2 per cent.

Do Havre, do., 3/4.

As the rate of Exchange looks downward, it is possible that shortly specie will be shipped.

The advices from Montevideo to-day announce another foreign vessel ashore at the mouth of the river; and bank paper gone up somewhat, closing firm

at 8 1/2.

In Gas Shares one sale—100 shares, at 60 premium.

In discounts a very active business doing; good paper 12 per cent per annum. The absence of Provedura and Government paper has tended to improve the market.

The Estrella, from Rosario, has brought another splendid consignment of pure silver from the Klappen-back Mining Co., San Juan.

Our South Plaza Correspondent

reports no transactions to-day, on account of the rain.

At the station some sheepskins sold at common rates.

KEMP'S VEGETABLE WORM PASTILLES.
This is a most satisfactory remedy for all kinds of Worms. They are easily administered, and are a safe remedy in such diseases.
FRANCISCO CASALS, M.D., Cuba, June 10, 1892.
I Certify, that "Kemp's Vegetable Worm Pas-tilles" is one of the most efficacious remedies for removing and destroying long as I have known it. It is a very dangerous vermin, but the "Pastilles" have effectually relieved me,
and my health is now entirely re-established.
I shall always strongly recommend this most agreeable of medicines.
LUIS FLORES.
Lima, May 26, 1892.
KEMP'S VEGETABLE WORM PASTILLES
NEARLY perfect for the most delicate child. They never fail in removing Worms of all kinds, when used according to directions.
